The PtP Project is directed by Dr. Lester M. Salamon, a professor at the Johns Hopkins University and director of the Johns Hopkins Center for Civil Society Studies. Administrative and technical support for the Project is being provided by the East-West Management Institute (EWMI), an independent, not-for-profit organization committed to building sustainable civil society institutions in countries throughout the world. The Hanover Conference has been organized with the support of the Volkswagen Foundation. Other support for the project has been provided by eight Italian foundations of banking origin (Fondazione Cariplo, Compagnia di San Paolo, Fondazione Banca del Monte di Lucca, Fondazione del Monte di Bologna e Ravenna, Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio di Bolzano, Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio di Cuneo, Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio di Fossano, Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio Salernitana) through the Associazione di Fondazioni e di Casse di Risparmio (ACRI), by the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation and the Ford Foundation in the United States, and by the King Baudouin Foundation in Belgium. More information about the PtP Project is available at the Project's website: p-t-p.org.
